

Remote LightBar Series

Edison Opto Remote LightBar series is based on the blue light emitters with Remote Phosphor tube to achieve an Omni-directional line light with high quality consistent color matching. As for the superior light quality, the product provides high efficiency lighting system which up to 30% higher than conventional LED lighting. The Glare-free feature design also brings users a comfortable visual experience.

Moreover, the product series offers three kinds of color temperature, while the promising efficiency makes Remote LightBar the best choice for a widely illuminated application in task, tube, cabinet, and chandelier lighting using.

Features :

- Omni-directional light distribution
- Glare-free LED Line light design
- System efficacy higher than conventional LED lighting by 30%

Applications :

- Tube Light
- Chandelier
- Decorative Lighting